Hereby, I declare that the PhD professors from the Escola de Música-UFRJ and the Programa de Pós-graduação Profissional em Música - PROMUS-UFRJ, Paulo Henrique Loureiro de Sá (mandolin) and Bartholomeu Wiese Filho (guitar), were part of the Exchange Program with Malmö Academy of Music, Lund University, Sweden, within the frames of the Linnaeus-Palme interchange between our institutions, between September 16 and October 15, 2017. During the period of their visit they held lecture-recitals, individual lessons and workshops on Brazilian music (Choro, Samba, Maxixe and Frevo) to students on graduate and advanced level. They also performed concerts in towns in the south of Sweden, along with Swedish teachers and musicians Sven Kristersson (piano, vocals), Lars Holms (acordion) and M. Neumann (guitar and vocals). The duo Paulo Sá and Bartholomeu Wiese also performed a beautiful concert at Malmö Town Hall Concert.
